How is the "Refer & Earn" program different from the Affiliate Program?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

The Refer & Earn program is designed for all FundedNext traders, making it easy for anyone to participate with just one click. Once you've purchased an account, you'll have your own referral code and start earning a 7% commission when someone uses your code on their first purchase. There's no need to apply, and you don't need an extensive online presence to participate.

In contrast, the FundedNext Affiliate Program is a partnership opportunity for influencers, bloggers, and those with a significant online presence.
