Can you explain the $1,000 compensation promise of FundedNext's Brand Promise?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

The $1,000 compensation promise underscores FundedNext's dedication to timely Payouts, assuring traders that punctuality is paramount. In the rare event of a delay, this pledge ensures traders aren't just acknowledged but also compensated. Here's how it operates:

Compensation Trigger: The $1,000 compensation applies if FundedNext fails to process a Payout request within the committed 24-hour timeframe.

This additional Payment exemplifies FundedNext's commitment to delivering outstanding service and reliability. It's not just about rectifying a delay; it's about exceeding expectations to ensure the satisfaction of FundedNext traders.
