

 Search for articles...All Collections > About FundedNext > Country Restrictions > Are any countries restricted on FundedNext?

Are any countries restricted on FundedNext?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

FundedNext values its diverse community of traders around the world. While its aim is to provide equal trading opportunities to individuals worldwide, due to certain constraints, FundedNext has decided to restrict access to its services for residents of certain countries. As of now, residents of Bangladesh, North Korea, Syria, the United States, American Samoa, Puerto Rico, Grenada, Chad, Belize, Antigua and Barbuda, Cape Verde, Tuvalu, Vietnam, Bouvet Island, Burundi, Cook Islands, Eritrea, Comoros, and Fiji are not able to access FundedNext's trading platform.

Please refer to the image below for information on the restricted countries:

Restricted Countries on FundedNext

North Korea

Syria

United States

American Samoa

Puerto Rico

Grenada

Chad

Bangladesh

Antigua and Barbuda

Cape Verde

Tuvalu

Vietnam

Bouvet Island

Burundi

Cook Islands

Eritrea

Comoros

Fiji

Belize

The decision to implement these restrictions is based on careful consideration of several factors. FundedNext's primary goal is to ensure an optimal trading experience for our global users, and this decision aligns with that objective.

Related Articles

What is the FundedNext trading competition about?

Is there any Age Restriction to joining FundedNext?

How does FundedNext ensure Fairness & Transparency in trading?

Does FundedNext offer any Certificates? >

Are there any restrictions on my trading strategy? >

Did this answer your question?

support@fundednext.com