Can I withdraw profits from the Competition account?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

Traders are unable to withdraw profits from their Competition Account. The Competition Account is exclusively reserved for active trading and demonstrating the trader's skills within the defined rules and guidelines.

Rest assured that the Competition environment is designed to provide a fair and level playing field for all participants. By focusing on trading and striving for success within the Competition, traders have the opportunity to showcase their abilities and potentially earn lucrative rewards.
