Will I get back my Registration Fee?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

Upon successfully meeting the requirements and achieving a payout from the FundedNext Account, traders will receive a Reward Bonus equivalent to their initial registration fee. This Reward Bonus must be requested as a payout and will be processed along with the first payout.

However, if traders choose to reset their account at any point, the Reward Bonus will match the most recent reset fee they have paid instead of the initial registration fee.

Stellar Lite Account:

For the Stellar Lite Account, traders will receive the Reward Bonus equivalent to the initial registration fee upon successfully meeting the requirements and achieving their third payout from the FundedNext Account. This Reward Bonus must also be requested and will be processed along with the third payout.
