

 Search for articles...All Collections > FundedNext Features > FundedNext Traders' Competition >Can I hold my trades overnight and over the weekends during the competition?

Can I hold my trades overnight and over the weekends during the competition?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

Traders can hold their trades overnight and over the weekends, allowing them to capitalize on market movements outside conventional trading hours. For example, a trader can open a trade on Friday and close it on Tuesday, holding it through the weekend and overnight on Monday. This flexibility supports both short-term and long-term strategies, enabling confident trade management without constraints during the competition.

Related Articles

Can I hold my positions Overnight/Weekend?Why is Weekend Holding not available on an Express-Consistency account?Can I hold my trades Overnight and Over Weekend on FundedNext?Can I trade Cryptocurrencies with FundedNext?What are the rules for the Trade Master Cup?

Did this answer your question?

support@fundednext.com