Can I get the FundedNext account if I reach the Profit Target in 5 days?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

Absolutely. As long as traders meet the profit target and adhere to all the rules, they are encouraged to proceed to the next step in as little as 5 days for each phase.

This means traders only need to execute a minimum of five individual and separate trades per Trading Cycle. For instance, if the Trading Cycle starts on January 1st and concludes on January 31st, traders must enter a new trade on at least five of those days. Importantly, trading days do not need to be consecutive.

If traders can achieve the 5% profit target in their Phase 2 account by trading at least 5 days while adhering to all the rules, they will qualify for the FundedNext Account.
