How to claim the competition prize?

Updated over 2 weeks ago

FundedNext values its traders' achievements and ensures that prizes are delivered smoothly and efficiently. After the winner list for each competition is declared, FundedNext will directly contact each winner via email to arrange the prize delivery.

For winners receiving a free account as part of their prize:

- The free account will be available in the My Offer section of your dashboard.
- This account must be claimed within one month of being added to the My Offer section.
- If the prize is not claimed within this period, it will become invalid.

To stay updated, we kindly encourage traders to follow our official social media platforms for announcements and updates. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to our support team for assistance!
